Keynote Speaker and Workshop Leaders

Liz Koole: Liz has worked with children and families for over 25 years. She completed a B.A. in sociology, anthropology and theology at Durham University and an M.Sc. in Applied Social Studies at Oxford University. Initially Liz worked as a social worker specializing in work with children and families, including child protection work and fostering and adoption. She then moved on to work with children with disabilities, followed by 6 years as a member of a paediatric oncology team, supporting children who had cancer and their families. For the past 9 years Liz has worked for Winston’s Wish, where she presently manages the national team that provides support for children who have been bereaved as a result of murder, suicide or a military death. She has a particular interest in bereavement related to different developmental stages, bereavement in pre-school children, Family Therapy as an approach to working with bereaved children and the sociological aspects of death and bereavement.

Jacky Clifford is a Senior Accredited Counsellor and Registered Independent Counsellor (UKRC) with BACP. She is an experienced group and individual supervisor and a trainer and facilitator of courses for counsellors and supervisors. She has been in the profession for over 20 years and was a lecturer on a Certificate in Counselling and a Foundation Degree. She has experience of working within a Hospice environment and currently supervises counsellors working in this field. Jacky also supervises within a Drop in Centre at a Cancer Hospital. She has experience within the bereavement field of people impacted by suicide within the family or close friends.

Rosemary Lamaison is a Parent Specialist and has helped parents experiencing separation, bereavement, children who offend, as well as with everyday parenting issues in the family. Rosemary is a Counsellor and Supervisor with over 20 years’ experience and her work covers a broad spectrum and includes GP referrals, loss and change, relationship issues, self-esteem and confidence, survivors of domestic abuse, eating disorders, ex-Boarders, sexuality issues, anxiety and depression.

Jon Wilson Cooper Dip. I.G.C. is a qualified Gestalt Psychotherapist with over 25 years’ experience of therapeutic communities including work in the UK, USA and India. Jon has experience of working with people with long and enduring psychiatric problems, young offenders, people with learning difficulties and people who misuse drugs and alcohol. He is currently course leader on a Foundation Degree in Counselling course as well as being a freelance trainer, consultant and supervisor. Jon is a Director of The Albany Centre for personal and professional development in St Albans, Hertfordshire. He is also Chair of the Board of Trustees for Signpost Youth Counselling.

Ceridwen Rees: “Where words fail, music speaks”. This philosophy inspires and informs all of Ceridwen’s work as a musician, music therapist and specialist music teacher. Her main roles in her capacity as music therapist have been at Helen House, Oxford, the world’s first children’s hospice, and on the wards of The Oxford Children’s Hospital. Her main focus within all her sessions is the desire to provide a safe space in which children can communicate and express themselves in and through music.

Beverley Dawkins OBE and Dr Noelle Blackman: Beverley is the Chief Executive of Generate. She has been working with children and adults with a learning disability since she qualified as a Speech and Language Therapist in 1979. Moving in to the voluntary sector to become a regional director of Kids London in 1989, she went on to join the Campaigns and Policy Team at the Royal Mencap Society in 2000. During the following 14 years, with a focus on those with the most profound and complex needs she led many of Mencap’s best known campaigns. Author of the award winning Mencap reports ‘Death by indifference’ (Mencap 2007) and the follow up report ‘74 deaths and counting’ (Mencap 2012) Beverley is Chair of the Profound and Multiple Learning Disabilities Network and Trustee of the PMLD Link charity. She was awarded an OBE for services to people with special needs in June 2011.

Gary Daines is a qualified Integrative Psychotherapist who has supported young people who self harm through his work at The WISH Centre since 2007. He has previously trained Counsellors, Psychiatrists, Teachers, Social Workers and other Professionals on the issues of Self Harm and Young People.
